

THE TIGER IN THE ZOO

1. What does the tiger do behind the bars?

Ans:- The tiger walks slowly and silently inside the cage, showing his anger through quiet movements.

2. Why does the tiger ignore the visitors?

Ans:- The tiger ignores the visitors because he is sad and helpless in the cage. He knows they can't free him.

3. How does the poet imagine that the tiger should be terrorizing the villagers?

Ans:- The poet imagines the tiger moving freely at the edge of the forest, snarling and scaring people near the village.

4. What does the tiger staring at the brilliant stars signify?

Ans:- It shows that the tiger feels lonely, helpless, and dreams of freedom while silently looking at the stars.

5. Where should the tiger be snarling around, and how should it be terrorizing the village?

Ans:- The tiger should be snarling around the jungle's edge, scaring villagers with his loud growls and strong presence.

6. "He stalks in his vivid stripes." Who is meant by he? In the above line, what is meant by vivid stripes?

Ans:- He refers to the tiger, who walks proudly with his bright, colorful stripes. Vivid stripes means the tiger's bright, clear black stripes on his yellow-orange body.

8. What is meant by quiet rage?

Ans:- Quiet rage means the tiger is angry but cannot show it loudly. His anger is silent because he is trapped.

9. How does the tiger behave in the cage?

Ans:- The tiger walks slowly in a small cage, feeling angry and helpless. He cannot move freely.

10. What would the tiger have been doing if it were in its natural habitat?

Ans:- He would be hiding near the waterhole, waiting to hunt deer and living freely in the jungle.

11. Where is the tiger locked? What is the last voice heard by the tiger at night?

Ans:- The tiger is locked in a concrete cage at the zoo. The last sound he hears is the noise of the patrolling cars outside the zoo at night.

13. What should the tiger be doing near the water hole? Where do the plump deer pass?

Ans:- The tiger should be hiding near the waterhole, watching for deer to hunt. The plump deer pass near the waterhole in the forest, where the tiger could hunt them.

15. What does the tiger do at the edge of the village?

Ans:- At the edge of the village, the tiger snarls and scares people with his wild presence.